1) Örebro (ISRC US-JBY-07-00014) scattered gems - you held them in your hand broken seashells scattered in the sand what you do is within your command throw it all away for an old idea every day it's more than real even if it's never quite ideal

all I say and all I do never will get through to you the ice isn't thick, but you just won't see through

in Örebro

all I say and all I do

once one little crack appears you won't be happy until it clears continue skating, bringing me to tears

the sun grew heavy and her eyes grew dim sinking now, she refused to swim the dark of night now comes crowding in solen växel sig tung, hennes ögen mattas nu sjunker hon, hon vägrar simme nattans mörker träger sig inpa i Örebro

in Örebro

2) Angels (ISRC US-JBY-07-00015) the angels circle round my head but I don't want to play I try to ignore them live from day to day but they repeat my sins to me with everything they say I'll put it in this big black hole and hope it goes away so I change my name every hundred year a lock of hair every ten burn a candle every year or so but I think about you every day

but now it's gonna be another thousand years before I put my lips to your lips again angels whisper in my ear and follow the curve of my tongue they write down every word I say and everything I've done I'll miss you whenever you are gone for a week or for ten years I'll love and dread to see you again and it won't assuage my fears so I change my name every hundred years change my face every ten burn a candle every year or so but I think about you now and then

the angels circle round my room and watch me as I sleep they're with me every hour of my life permeate the deep I'd kill them if I knew the way to keep them off my back I don't want them hanging 'round keeping me on track

so I change my name every hundred years
burn a candle every year or so
but now it's gonna be another thousand years before I put my lips to your witch's tit again

3) I Love You (ISRC US-JBY-07-00016)

I love you I love you I love you I love you you're great and besides you're kinda cute

4) Greedy (ISRC US-JBY-07-00017)

I want your touch
I want your kiss

when I'm without it, it's exactly what I miss because I'm greedy. I wish that you were greedy too.
I'm greedy, I wish that you were greedy like me

I want your effort
I want your time I want everything to be mine because I'm greedy. I wish that you were greedy like me I'm greedy, I wish that you were greedy too

I want your touch
I want everything, it's never enough because I'm greedy. I wish that you were greedy too.

I want your heart
I want your mind I want more than I realistically find
I'm greedy. but I guess I'm not greedy like you

5) Can't Help It (ISRC US-JBY-07-00018)

I'll bend the physical laws of time and space to get back to you layers of light fall away from your face when I'm with you

I see the world shine within your eyes but I guess that comes as no surprise I can't help it

I'll cross through the borders of the wind
to get back to you I hardly know where you end or where I begin when I'm with you

every new flavor finds its place you are the special seventh taste you can't help it

I'll break the physical laws of space and time to get back to you
new universes form in the corners of my mind when I'm with you

you know the secret, but I do too it makes us do the dance we do we can't help it

6) Enough Air (ISRC US-JBY-07-00019) an empty room, chill in the air there are a few clues showing who isn't there all of those spots worn out by my stare salt crystals from dried tears spice my meals, they've been gathered for years as if everything is just as it appears

I feel like I'm waiting limbo never ends time is abating, it's dulling my sense but it doesn't alleviate the suspense breathe a cold breath and blow it on out waiting for you to come and end this drought but I'm still without

I can remember the day that you left torn from my side we were cleft so I wait to stop being bereft ghosts in my home but nobody's there there is no sign there's no mail in the box, not even a card the phone doesn't ring, there's not even a sound No one knocks on the door and I know that it's you not coming home so I'm still alone until the end I will show that I care with my last breath I know be screaming:

"life isn't fair"
if I have enough air

7) Scars (ISRC US-JBY-07-00020) hey you outstanding what's on your mind? when you ventured out last time, what did you find? did you get hurt out there under the watching sun so now you'll just stay in and sulk like you're the only one every time you try there's a chance that you'll get hurt but every time you hurt you heal and every time you heal you scar your scars make you who you are who you are hey you wallflower don't you want to dance? we're all out here on the floor, why not take a chance? are you embarrassed at what you've become how the world shapes you cannot be undone

just jump into the water, put it into gear we both know that the only thing that keeps you back is fear those marks that you're left with prove where you've been why hide them from the world - let them be seen

8) Stay (ISRC US-JBY-07-00021)

I see you, I hear the thoughts inside your head I feel you, these things are better left unsaid what would happen if we would peel away the days what would happen on a rainy day in May what would happen if you should stay you know me the convolutions in your mind you see me maybe you left me behind? what would happen if we peeled away the days what would happen if I don't get on that plane what would happen if I should stay?

rainy day, what came before still in play still wanting more rainy day, still in play, cards I missed, lips unknissed I recognize your song from an old silent film I recognize your form, fired from the kiln why don't you stay?

9) Gravity (ISRC US-JBY-07-00022) this love it has a gravity this love holds a great weight this world tries to throw me off this world shows me my fate the turbulence is strong, I feel my way with my right hand to keep me on the ground, keep me where I stand the winds are blowing strong, threatening to throw me off to keep me from going wrong I become a mountain this love moves like geology this love, it takes its time this world it spins too fast to see this world, can anything ever be mine?

the winds are blowing strong, I feel my way with my right hand

the turbulence is strong, threatening to throw me off

standing on the surface of the earth trying not to get thrown off I need you here to hold me down,
I need you here to hold me this world throws too much at me this world spins at a great speed when is enough enough? what holds this great need?

I need you here to hold me down,

10) Wonder Seeker (ISRC US-JBY-07-00022) what I never learned in school always served me well though what these things may be are always hard to tell

I seek the wonder in the world the minor riddles can keep me here watching the sky breathing the air

the smallest insect the tallest tree the human actions of humanity

all the good things and all the bad are all the best things I ever had

I seek the wonder in the world
